How to get to the conference venues / How to get around Zagreb

Public Transport

Zagrebački električni tramvaj (ZET) is the municipal transport company in Zagreb, which operates the tram system and the public bus service as well as the funicular connecting lower and upper town.

You can buy a single ticket or a pack of ten tickets at a tisak, a ZET store or from the bus or tram drivers. Do not forget to validate your ticket in the machines when you get on board. Prices are the same for all means of public transport including trams and busses:

Tickets	Valid for...	Cost/day	Cost/night
Single tickets	90 min	10 kn	15 kn
Daily ticket	24h unlimited travel	30 kn
Three-day card	3 days unlimited travel	70 kn
Funicular		4 kn

(Exchange rate Euro - Kuna: 1 € ≈ 7.508 kn)

Trams are the best and fastest way to get around Zagreb. There are 15 routes in Zagreb, and many stop either at Trg bana Jelacica (the main square) or at the main train station. Closest tram stop to Lisinski Concert Hall: Lisinski (tram routes 3, 5, 13; night tram 33).

Buses operate more as suburban transport and as a city-suburb connection. Nevertheless, there is a direct connection between Zagreb Central Station and Lisinski Concert. Closest bus stop to Lisinski Concert Hall: Lisinski (bus routes 108, 218, 219, 220, 221, 229, 234, 281, night bus 268).

→ You can find a route map with the main tram routes here: <http://bit.ly/2e3cp32>.

Walk: in addition to using public transport, you can easily walk around Zagreb. The city is not too big and the important spots are quite close to each other.

From Zagreb International Airport Franjo Tudman (Pleso) to Lisinski Concert Hall

Bus shuttle:

(One-way ticket price: 30,00 kn; daily two-way ticket price: 40,00 kn.)

The airport bus shuttle station is situated outside the main arrival hall. The bus runs every 30 min; timetable available at

Please note that after 8pm, you have buses leaving shortly after arrival of scheduled flights. Destination: Main bus station (Autobusni Kolodvor, approx. 30 min), get off the bus at Stop: (Ul.) Hrvatske Bratske Zajednice.

→ Walk (6min, 450 m): To get to the venue, follow the Ul. Hrvatske Bratske Zajednice to the north towards Trnjanski zavoј IV. After approx. 290 m turn right on Ul. Grada Vukovara and take the next left on Trg Stjepana Radića. Lisinski Concert Hall is on the right side.

!! Taxi: If you decide to go by taxi, we highly recommend avoiding taxis directly waiting at the airport, as they tend to overcharge their passengers. We suggest you call a taxi to pick you up. Our recommendation: Eko Taxi, Phone +385 1 889 20 13.

General information about Taxi in Zagreb:

There are several taxi companies in Zagreb. Check the price labels in the front seat. Be aware that you have to pay an extra charge for rides after midnight, big luggage, a ride from/to the airport/ stations and also if you travel beyond the city zone.

Eko-Taxi, Phone: +385 1 889 20 13.

Radio Taksi Zagreb, Phone: +385 1 6600 671; +385 1 1717.

Taxi Cammeo, Phone: +385 1 121

Arriving from the Zagreb Central Station (Glavni Kolodvor) to Lisinski Concert Hall:

Walk: as the venue is very close to the Central Station, the easiest way is to walk (8 min, 600 m). To get there, take the train platform 1 (peron 1) and the main station's pedestrian underpass. Turn left towards Paromlinska cesta. After 180 m turn left on Trg Stjepana Radića and follow the street for approx. 150 m. The Lisinski Concert Hall is on the left side.

If you do not like to walk, you can also take the bus (see Buses).

Arriving by car

Address: Koncertna dvorana Vatroslava Lisinskog, 4 Stjepan Radića Square, 10000 Zagreb.

From Rijeka, Karlovac and Split:

From the A1-3 motorway, take the Zagreb jug exit. Continue on Jadranska Avenija. At the roundabout take the second exit towards Avenije Dubrovnik. At the second set of traffic lights, turn left into Avenija Većeslava Holjevca and follow the signs to the centre (Centar). Cross the second junction to get on Trg Stjepana Radića. The venue is on the right side.

From Hungary, Varaždin, Belgrade, Sarajevo and Slavonski Brod:

From the A1 motorway, take the Zagreb istok exit. Continue along Slovanska Avenija and turn right on Ul. Hrvatske Bratske Zajednice. Cross the next junction to get on Trg Stjepana Radića. The venue is on the right side.

From Graz, Maribor, Krapina, Ljubljana, Mailand and Bregana:

From the A1 motorway, take the Zagreb zapad exit. Continue along Zagrebačka Avenija, which becomes Slovanska Avenija. Turn left on Ul. Hrvatske Bratske Zajednice. Cross the next junction to get on Trg Stjepana Radića. The venue is on the right side.

How to get to the National and University Library

On Friday 11 November at 8 pm there will be a reception and cultural event with live music at the National and University Library within walking distance from Linsinski Concert Hall.

From the Lisinski Concert Hall

Walk (500m): To get from the conference venue to the National and University Library, it takes a short walk of about 10 min. To get there, follow Trg Stjepana Radića to the south. Turn right on Ul. Grada Vukovara and then left on Ul. Hrvatske Bratske Zajednice. After approx. 350m the Library is on the right side.

From the city centre

Breaks between conference and dinner/cultural event on Friday 11th November present a great opportunity to visit the old town of Zagreb around the Ban Jelačić Square.

The route along the parks Zrinjevac and Josipa Jurja is a nice way to get from the old town to the National and University Library, where the cultural event takes place. Follow Praska ul. to get out of the old town towards the park area. At the end you arrive at the Central Station. Take the pedestrian underpass (stairs). Turn left in direction of Paromlinska cesta, which continue as Trg Stjepana Radica. Turn right to stay on Trg Stjepana Radica. Cross the conjunction and follow Ul. Hrvatske Bratske Zajednice. The library is on the right side.
